AUGUSTA, Ga. - Former Armstrong State University head baseball coach Joe Roberts and standout women's tennis player Zsafia Golopencza-Ellwood have been named to the inaugural Peach Belt Conference Hall of Fame class, announced today by the league.

The pair are part of 25 former student-athletes, coaches and administrators will be inducted into the newly created Hall of Fame, the induction ceremony will be held on Tuesday, May 31, at the Sonesta Resort Hilton Head Island. The Hall of Fame is part of the league's celebration of its 25th anniversary.

The inaugural class was divided into three categories: Founding Fathers, Student-Athletes, and Coaches & Administrators.

Roberts is one of nine inductees under the Coaches and Administrators category. The all-time winningest coach in NCAA Division II, Roberts compiled a 1,322-640 head coaching record at Armstrong State in 34 seasons, a .674 winning percentage. Click here for the full bio on his accomplishments.

Golopencza-Ellwood, meanwhile, holds the distinction of being the only Peach Belt Conference student-athlete to earn the league's Player of the Year honor four times in a career. One of 13 former student-athletes to be inducted, Golopencza-Ellwood played for the Pirates from 2000-04, compiling a 151-9 overall singles record and 130-19 overall doubles record, earning ITA All-American honors in both singles and doubles four times. Click here for the full bio on her accomplishments.
